

Ignatius Jesuit Centre

A Place of Peace

Job Title: Contract Cook
Job Type: Full-Time contract October 1, 2017-February 15, 2018 (approximate dates)
Start Date: October 1, 2017
Contact: Submit resume and cover letter to officemanager@ignatiushguelph.ca

The Ignatius Jesuit Centre welcomes all and is home to the diverse resources of Loyola House Retreat & Training Centre, Ignatius Farm, the Ignatius Old-Growth Forest Project and the Orchard Park Office Centre.

We are seeking an enthusiastic and passionate cook to join our kitchen staff; someone who has a keen understanding of local, organic, vegetarian, sustainable & ethical food production. This position is perfect for the industry cook who is looking to get away from long, late night shifts.

Come and experience the joy of working where you are deeply appreciated!

Job Overview:

- Responsible for daily prep work, set up and tear down
- Participate in cleaning dining areas, kitchen & dishwashing
- Support and assist the kitchen manager
- Understand and comply with standards according to the Health and Safety Regulations
- Work special events as required

Qualifications:

- Knowledge and understanding of local, organic, sustainable and ethical food production
- Minimum 2 years in the Hospitality industry preferred
- Post-secondary education in hospitality or related fields, or a combination of relevant education, work and life experiences
- Able to work efficiently, calmly and cheerfully under pressure
- Good cooperative and comprehension skills
- Able to work evenings, weekends and holidays

Tell us why you're interested in this role.

We thank all applicants in advance; only those selected for interviews will be contacted.