Bernie Carroll, SJ has been a long-time spiritual director at Loyola House. He visited Taizé many years ago. He was pastor of Holy Rosary parish, Guelph for 10 years and Director of Martyrs Shrine, Midland for 5 years. He loves singing the Taizé chants.

Tarcia Gerwing obtained a B.A. from the University of Saskatchewan and her M.A. in Ministry and Spirituality from Regis College, University of Toronto. Tarcia has been an Associate Staff member and Guest Director at Loyola House since 1992, working on a variety of programs. Tarcia also trains spiritual directors at Loyola House and through the Guelph Ecumenical Guild.

Dan Leckman, SJ found God during his years studying History & Russian Studies at McGill University. In 2006, he discovered his vocation to become a Brother in the Society of Jesus. He joined Loyola House as a spiritual director in 2015.

Ignatius Jesuit Centre is a place of peace that welcomes a global community of people who seek to integrate their inner and outer life with God and with all Creation.

We promote right relationships with God, with each other and with Creation, especially through spiritual development in the tradition of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola and through deep engagement with this land.

Loyola House Retreats & Ignatian Training is central to the Ignatius Jesuit Centre, located one km north of Guelph on over 600 acres of beautiful farmland, with walking trails through rolling hills, woods and wetlands—all of it an integral part in our retreats and programs.

Taizé is a town in France where an ecumenical monastic community has existed since 1940. Today, the Taizé Community is made up of over a hundred brothers, Catholics and from various Protestant backgrounds, coming from around thirty nations. By its very existence, the community is a “parable of community” that wants its life to be a sign of reconciliation between divided Christians and between separated peoples. Tens of thousands have spent time there each year since the early 60s. Their chants are now sung in churches around the world.

Singing is one of the most essential elements of worship. Short songs, repeated again and again, give it a meditative character. Using just a few words they express a basic reality of faith, quickly grasped by the mind. As the words are sung over many times, this reality gradually penetrates the whole being. It allows everyone to take part in a time of prayer together and to remain together in attentive waiting on God, without having to fix the length of time too exactly.

*We chant our joys and praises;
we sing our aspirations and petitions; we give thanks.*

Format of the Weekend

The manner of prayer is based on the manner of worship of the Taizé ecumenical monastic community.

We begin Friday evening at 8 pm with Prayer and Chants around the Cross and continue with morning, noon and evening prayer on Saturday and Sunday. The retreat finishes with Eucharist on Sunday at 11:30 am, followed by lunch.

Who is it for?

In Taizé the emphasis is on youth but all age groups appreciate this contemplative style of prayer. People who love to sing can easily learn the chants and even ad simple four-part harmony. Meditative singing thus becomes a way of listening to God.

N.B. This is not a totally silent retreat.
